QVMC Welcomes Rhonda Ramm to SageView Family Care Clinic

Quincy Valley Medical Center (QVMC) would like to welcome Rhonda Ramm as the newest member to the SageView Family Care Clinic Team.

Born and raised in Soap Lake, Rhonda is happy to make Grant County home for herself and her four children. In 2007, while going to school to receive her Master's in Nursing, Rhonda came to the Quincy Valley Medical Center to work as an Emergency/Acute Care charge nurse and to complete her Family Internship with SageView physician Dr. Mary Klingner.

Rhonda is board certified for family practice by the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners.

Rhonda is happy to be in Quincy working with the physicians at QVMC and assisting our community members. She has experience in mental health, adult care, internal medicine, pediatrics, orthopedics, dermatology, botox, family medicine and OB/Gynecology.
