

QVMC receives grant

The Quincy Valley Medical Center recently received $45,000 from the Paul Lauzier Foundation to rebuild their nurse's station. The hospital is looking at designs and plans to begin renovations in October.

"This is a great project and will greatly benefit our nurses and nursing staff," said administrator Mehdi Merred.

QVPR 06-05-08