Benefit dinner for Quincy Valley Medical Center is set for July 19

QUINCY — The Quincy Valley Hospital Foundation's second Red Wine and Blues benefit dinner will take place July 19.

The dinner is aimed at helping the QVHF fulfill its mission to seek, receive and administer donations to benefit the Quincy Valley Medical Center.

This year's Red Wine and Blues will be at 6 p.m. on Saturday, July 19 at Parties on the Green in Quincy. Tickets are $45 per person if purchased prior to July 11. Tickets include a dinner from Michael's on the Lake from Moses Lake and a live musical performance by Seattle's Becki Sue and her Big Rockin' Daddies. Tickets can be purchased at the door for $55.

There will be a no host bar on site featuring beer and wines from the Cave B Estate Winery, Jones of Washington, Saint Laurent Estate Winery and White Heron Cellars.

Two artists will also display their work at the second annual event. Ana Candiotti and Kerry Siderius will have their art displayed and available for purchase. A portion of the artists' proceeds will be donated to the QVHF.
